Mitchell Ultramate Discontinued January 1, 2024

Date published: August 1, 2023

Mitchell is discontinuing Ultramate on January 1, 2024.

The final Ultramate update was released in July 2023 and will function until January 1, 2024. As previously communicated by Mitchell on March 23, 2023 and July 10, 2023, no further updates will be required after the July 2023 update. The final Ultramate update is available via Mitchell Download Manager (MDM).

Mitchell Alternate Parts Program (MAPP) data updates will continue until December 28, 2023. New computers or reinstalls will have the July Ultramate version installed.

MPI support teams are currently working on a transition plan for any remaining claims with estimates written in Ultramate and will communicate next steps later this year.
